ing at least 25 per cent of the property owners.

COUNTY FIGURES show that the pro-incorporationists came up with 25.6 per cent of the assessed value representing 35 per cent of the property owners. It is understood that County officials cease counting signatures and property valuation when the qualifying 35 per cent on each requirement is met. It is possible that the pro-incorporationists had considerably more than the required percentages had all the signatures on the petitions been counted.

However, the five-week delay allows those opposed to incorporation that much additional time to get more protestors' signatures, while pro-incorporationists are, by law, restricted in this respect.

A FEW MINOR points, both for and against the issue, were argued after Moore's presentation, but Supervisors continued to lean on the attorney's charge as a "crutch" to help them out of an apparent legal crisis in the hearing.

"The issue is too clouded," said Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, "to allow a decision to be made today. We should give both sides an opportunity to substantiate or deny the accusations made."

Supervisor Burton Chace moved the matter be given a public hearing on July 13 at 10:30 a.m. which was the Board's final decision.
